Mrs Johnson Passes

Mrs Mary Johnson, 88 a pioneer resident of the Champion district, died at the resident of her son, N W Johnson, 212 Dev Apartments, Sunday.

Mrs Johnson was born in Argleshire, Scotland. She came to Crinan, Ont, in 1874, and moved west to Cayley in 1907. Two years later she moved to Champion and had resided here until death. She was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Besides her son in Calgary she survived by two other sons H D of Cayley, and R A of Crinan, and two grandchildren. Her husband died in 1911.

Services will be announced by the Leyden Funeral Home

Champion Goes Hollywood

Movies are entertaining at any time but when you see yourself as others do they are much more so, as was the case last week in Champion when Mr Fred Clever brought his movie camera into action and took shots of the main street in Champion.

These he projected to the delight of the onlookers most of which were what one might call candid shots.

Pictures of people in their everyday occupations, old timers, Sunday strollers and business men in their moments of leisure as well as travelogues of India not to mention the comics.

Cub Pack Formed

Mr and Mrs Betton of High River, the District Commissioners of Scouting and Assistant District Commissioner of Cubing respectively, accompanied by Mr Doherty of Brant were Champion visitors on April 30.

Mrs Betton organized the younger boys of town into a Cub Pack. Sixers were chosen and the Pack held their first meeting under Mrs Bettons' leadership.

A delightful lunch of lemonade and doughnuts was served by the local guides.

A group committee was formed from the parents who attended the meeting.

The Wolf cub pack is sponsored by the local I O D E with James Brown as Cubmaster and Reno Rinaldi, his assistant.

Rachel Crane Passes Suddenly

Miss Rachel Charlotte Crane 23, 613 13th Ave. W., died in the Carmangay Hospital, Sunday after a brief illness. She had been visiting her parents' farm in the Champion district when she was suddenly taken ill during the weekend.

Miss Crane has lived in Calgary for the past 14 years. She was born in Champion. She was a member of the Wesley United Church.

Surviving are her parents Mr and Mrs Ray C Crane; two sisters, Dorothy, Denver, Col., and C E Burke, Calgary; a brother, Clayton, Denver; and her grandmother Mrs Bessie A Crane, Flint, Mich.

Funeral service will be conducted Wednesday at 2:42 p m by Rev Dr Douglas H Telfer at Jacques Funeral Home. Interment will be in Burnside cemetery.

Small Boy Falls From Tractor

Gordon Binnings the five yeass old grandson of Mr and Mrs Bjoranson was the victim of a painful accident when he slipped from the tractor on which he was riding Monday afternoon and the tiller combine which was hitched behind passed over him resulting in cuts about the body and internal injuries.

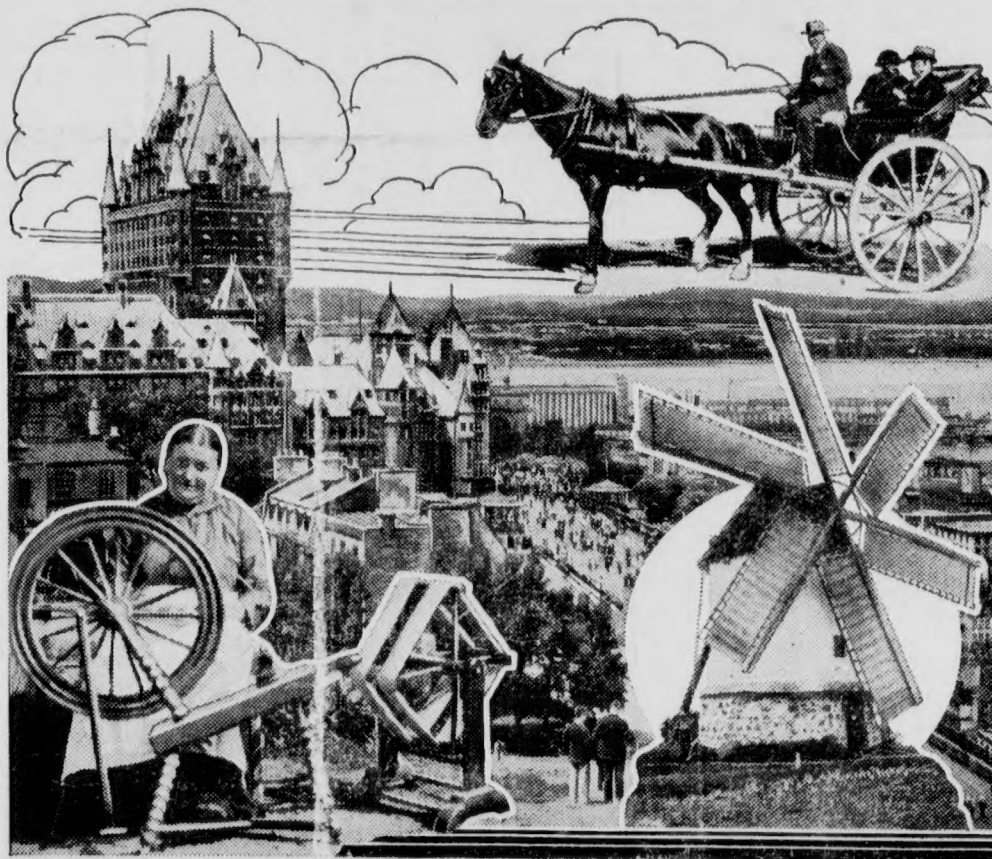

He was rushed to the Carmangay hospital and is reported progressing favourably.

Seeding in Full Swing Here

At this writing seeding is in full swing with tractors humming on into the night. The last few warm days with the drying winds has caused the disappearance of the mud holes, however any low lying land is as yet too wet to work. The light Sandy sections are dry and the work is progressing rapidly.

A light rain fell on Sunday with snow in northern districts which did not hamper the work to any extent.

Quebec Expects Banner Tourist Season

The Great Gates of Quebec's ancient city wall—originally designed to discourage hostile visitors—will be thrown open this summer for a large scale tourist invasion, expected to top all previous records. With most of Europe's Old World charms affected by wartime conditions, increased numbers of Canadians and Americans will take advantage of Quebec's historic surroundings and fine sporting facilities.

Combining the charm of the past with the luxuries of the present the Chateau Frontenac is the centre of the city's social and sports activities. Dominating the city's skyline, the majestic Canadian Pacific hostelry is within easy distance of the city's outstanding points of interest—an ideal headquarters for the visiting tourist. Dufferin Terrace, adjacent to the hotel, offers an ideal view of the historic "Lower Town" and the broad St. Lawrence.

Though possessing ideal facilities for practically every modern sport, Quebec's chief fascination to the tourist lies in its Old World charm. Its narrow, winding streets, lofty spired churches, convents and quaint domerred dwellings are reminiscent of medieval Normandy. Its not-so-peaceful years are recalled by battlefields, grim stone forts and ancient cannon.

Nearby points of interest include the Lorette Indian Reservation, the Isle of Orleans, unspoiled by the rush of civilization, the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre, and the Montmorency Falls. For the sports enthusiast there are fine facilities for golf, tennis, and badminton, while miles of colorful highways beckon the motorist. Laurentide National Park, 30 miles from the City, is a paradise for fishermen, canoeists, camera fans and nature lovers.

Quebec City is easily accessible over Canadian Pacific lines, and is conveniently connected with important centres in eastern Canada and the United States.

Youth Leadership

We were delighted to learn of the successful closing event of the Dramatic Society, particularly of the presence at the gathering of Reverend Peter Dawson, M. L. A. elect, Mayor Henderson, George Campbell and other well known leaders.

As we meet leaders of industry and fraternal groups in the east we are invariably impressed with the reference to what the young people are doing in these critical times to maintain the morale of their groups. It is recognized that with difficulties in employment, other than positions created by war effort, there has been a tendency on the part of many young people to lose heart, but by maintaining sports organization, dramatic club and church groups the vast majority of Canadian youth are ready and fit to assume responsibility when it comes.

Young people of Champion have the same spirit of adventure and service as their fathers and mothers had and all that it requires is a little leadership and guidance. The work of George Hargrave as president during the past season is worthy of special note for he has not only given leadership but actually carried out details. We trust that this success may result in a live sports organization this summer.

The Chronicle is behind any movement and will give its whole hearted support to any organization which sponsors sports day tributary to its district.

On some fifty deep reconnaissance flights made by night by the Royal Air Force only four aircraft are known to have been lost through enemy action.

C. F. A. C. Radiopinions

John J. Anthony, mentor of the Original Good Will Hour, heard at 7:00 p.m. every station CFAC lays claim to being the nation's number one trouble-seeker.

Most people run as fast and as far away from others' troubles
as they can. Mr. Anthony, however, not only sticks around to listen to them, but has devoted his whole life to helping them solve their problems.

He was born in New York on September 1, 1899. His boyhood was much the same as that of any other lad with one important exception—he had a habit of asking questions, trying to find out what made things tick and, more important for his later development, what kept them from ticking.

When he graduated from elementary high school with honors, Mr. Anthony entered law school. He wasn't studying very long, however, before he was struck by what he has since termed "glaring inequalities" in our marriage laws. With his customary intellectual curiosity
he began probing into the problem, asking his usual why, how, when? After extensive research it appeared to him that the difficulty could be traced could be traced to lack of understanding between married couples,
in some cases.

Fascinated by the subject,
Mr. Anthony determined to devote himself to it. To do this, however, required more than a complete knowledge of divorce law, it required more than a complete knowledge and understanding of psychology. Mr. Anthony plunged into an exhaustive study of Freud, Jung, Adler and other important authorities
on the subject.

He backed this up with practical field work in the actual study of causes of marital disturbances. He worked with social and welfare groups in every big city in the United States. He interviewed hundreds of couples and he arrived at the conclusion that all human problems were in one way or another, related to the problems arising out of the relationships between sexes.

Late Season In Alberta

Heavy rains and snows covered Alberta over the weekend, and cloudy and wet weather persisted during the early part of the week. With the first of May close at hand there has been no seeding done. This season is one of the latest ones in recent history.

While the season has been retarded, the increased moisture is welcome as subsoil reserves have been built up. The crop is sure to have a good start.

Warm, drying weather is badly needed, now in order to permit seeding operations. Through some parts of Central and Northern Alberta the land is so saturated that it will take a prolonged period of drying weather before any work can be done on it.

The opening of navigation on the Great Lakes is becoming delayed by unfavorable ice conditions, and present indications suggest that the official opening of navigation will not be until June and May 1st.

Average Rainfall

The precipitation which occurred last fall, in the terms of the normal or average, in Alberta was 78 percent, in Saskatchewan 48 percent, and in Manitoba 80 percent, or averaged together for the three provinces, and weighted for wheat acreage the moisture reserve available for the present crop on April 1st was only 62 percent normal.

Better than average precipitation has occurred from April 1st. Manitoba has 81 percent Saskatchewan has 57 and Alberta 101 percent of average bringing the combined averages to 75 percent
